

Standard #11 Human Interaction / Sexuality

Apply Catholic principles to interpersonal relations.

Performance Indicators

- ~Emphasize that all life is a gift of God that must be respected.
- ~Recall that in the parables Jesus tells us to love one another.

Assessment : How will you know that the children learned or are able to perform the indicators?

Where in your catechetical materials did you find the performance indicators?

Some Sample Activities

Invite the children to make a list of the things each family member does for one another, emphasizing the special talents of each family member and recognizing that they should be respected.

Rewrite the lyrics of a familiar song to include way the children can show respect for others.

Encourage families to hold hands during morning prayer, meal prayer and bedtime prayer as a sign that we are gifts for each other.

Help the children act out a scripture story that shows how they can love their friends and families.

Create and celebrate a prayer service about all life as a gift from God. Include the song, We are Children of the World.

Tell the story of The Good Samaritan. Engage the children in a discussion about right and wrong and loving vs. hurtful actions. Discuss what makes the actions loving or hurtful and right or wrong.
