Liturgical Responses

Give Sacred Scripture a special place in the classroom.

Encourage a reverent and prayerful attitude in the place of worship.

Parents should be encouraged to help children learn the required prayers at home.

Foster participation in the prayer and worship of the parish community.

Standard #1 Faith

Present an understanding of the human need for God based on revelation and faith.

Performance Indicator

~Show how God takes care of us and is always faithful to us.

Assessment : How will you know that the children learned or are able to perform the indicator?

Where in your catechetical materials did you find the performance indicator?

Some Sample Activities

Engage the children in a discussion about how God cares for them by giving them special people in their lives. Ask them to draw a picture that shows three of the people they most need. Ask the children to explain why these people are important to them.

Take time to read the Genesis story of Noah's Ark and talk about God's covenant with us. Follow up by making a rainbow banner entitle "God's Promise".

Take time to discuss where we find God in our world. Allow time for the children to work together to make a "Where is God?" collage.

Provide the children with some very special stationary. Explain that they are going to write a very special letter. Ask them to write a "Dear God" letter of thanks that can be collected, copied and mailed home to parents.

To show God's special gifts, have children retell the story of Creation by using simple props, fabric, etc.

Standard #2 Scripture

Read, understand, interpret and apply Scripture to life.

Performance Indicators

~Locate passages in the Bible according to books, chapters and verses.

~Demonstrate how we come to know Jesus in the Word of God.

Assessment : How will you know that the children learned or are able to perform the indicators?

Where in your catechetical materials did you find the performance indicators?

Some Sample Activities

To help the children learn how to locate Bible passages, set up a Bible search game. Ask the children to find specific selections and read them together.

Create a mural together from a Bible story that you have read. Cite where the story is found in God's Word.

Act out a parable that Jesus told. Discuss what we know about Jesus from this story.

Play Bible Bingo, using both chapter and verse references. Increase the difficulty as familiarity with the Bible increases.

Other activities I found useful...

Creed

Standard #3 Doctrine & Dogma

Illustrate a basic understanding of doctrine and dogma in light of the Creed.

Performance Indicators

- ~Articulate that Jesus is the Son of God and came to bring us God's Word.
- ~Show how God loves and cares for us as a parent.
- ~Demonstrate that the Holy Spirit is with us to help us pray.
- ~Explain the marks of the Catholic Church: one, holy, catholic and apostolic.

Assessment : How will you know that the children learned or are able to perform the indicators?

Where in your catechetical materials did you find the performance indicators?

Some Sample Activities

Provide the children with materials to make a "See What God Made" cardboard tube telescope. Take a walk together to discover the wonderful world God made.

Ask the children to draw themselves as a helping member of a family, and then again with them being helped by their family. Remind them that we should always love one another as Jesus taught us.

Ask the children to work together to create a large mural showing the four marks of the Church. Hang the mural in a prominent place for all to see.

- ~Examine how we are holy when we care about people, especially those different from ourselves.

Assessment : How will you know that the children learned or are able to perform the indicators?

Where in your catechetical materials did you find the performance indicators?

Some Sample Activities

Create a collage on poster board of people from different cultural, ethnic and racial backgrounds. Be sure to talk about how each is a child of God.

Invite the children to interview their parents about their own ethnic heritage and then, using a globe, share the information with the other children in your group.

Allow time for the children to draw a large package with themselves inside, as a gift, illustrating some of the gifts God gave them that make them special.

Read the parable of the Good Samaritan. Role play the parable using current events to apply the meaning of the parable to the contemporary reality.

Other activities I found useful...

Standard #11 Human Interaction / Sexuality

Apply Catholic principles to interpersonal relations.

Performance Indicators

- ~Emphasize that all life is a gift of God that must be respected.
- ~Recall that in the parables Jesus tells us to love one another.

Assessment : How will you know that the children learned or are able to perform the indicators?

Where in your catechetical materials did you find the performance indicators?

Some Sample Activities

Invite the children to make a list of the things each family member does for one another, emphasizing the special talents of each family member and recognizing that they should be respected.

Encourage families to hold hands during morning prayer, meal prayer and bedtime prayer as a sign that we are gifts for each other.

Create and celebrate a prayer service about all life as a gift from God. Include the song, We are Children of the World.

Rewrite the lyrics of a familiar song to include way the children can show respect for others.

Help the children act out a scripture story that shows how they can love their friends and families.

Tell the story of The Good Samaritan. Engage the children in a discussion about right and wrong and loving vs. hurtful actions. Discuss what makes the actions loving or hurtful and right or wrong.

Other activities I found useful...

- ~Recall that Jesus sums up the commandments for us in his Law of Love.

Assessment : How will you know that the children learned or are able to perform the indicators?

Where in your catechetical materials did you find the performance indicators?

Some Sample Activities

Create mini diaries for the children and ask them to keep track of all the good deeds they do for one week, noting which commandment helped them.

Allow time for the children to talk about what conscience means and how they learn right and wrong. Encourage them to relate incidents when their actions were consistent with Jesus' Law of Love.

Allow time for the children to tell stories about some choices they have made. Identify which were good choices and which were not, noting which commandment helped them.

Help the children memorize Jesus' Law of Love, and encourage them to recite it for their parents at home.

Ask the children to draw a picture of how they feel when they choose to do good.

Read aloud the story of Moses receiving the Ten Commandments at Mt. Sinai. Talk about what each commandment means for daily living.

Other activities I found useful...

Prayer

Standard #15 Catholic Tradition of Prayer
Know and participate in the Catholic tradition of prayer.

Performance Indicators

- ~Recall that God hears our prayers.
- ~Explain that listening to God's Word in Scripture is one way God speaks to us.
- ~Show the difference between spontaneous and liturgical prayer.
- ~Explain the Apostles Creed.

Assessment : How will you know that the children learned or are able to perform the indicators?

Where in your catechetical materials did you find the performance indicators?

Some Sample Activities

Encourage the children to pray quietly to God every day because God is always ready to listen.

Read Scripture stories to the children about Jesus praying. Give examples of spontaneous and liturgical prayer.

Invite the children to participate at Mass with their families, and to discuss the readings either before or after the liturgy. Ask them what God is saying.

Ask parents to help the children learn the prayer responses for Mass.

Re-read the Gospel together from Sunday's liturgy and discuss what God is saying to us this week.

Invite the children to interview various adults, asking them to explain their understanding of the Apostles Creed.

Provide opportunities for the children to pray spontaneously, illustrating how this is different from liturgical prayer.
