15th Sunday Ordinary time

From out of our daily life God calls and sends us forth as disciples to speak his word of repentance, to bring peace to the streets of our neighborhoods, and to heal the sick. The proclamation of redemption in Christ never grows old. It is ever new and relevant. We find our hope in God and following Jesus. When others refuse to welcome us, we continue on, never losing hope. Let us this day receive nourishment from the Mass and our participation in Word and Sacrament.

Bible Study

St. Francis Church will be starting a 6-week bible study course called "The Bible and the Church Fathers" starting Wednesday, July 10th @ 6 p.m. in the rectory, with Pat Looby leading the program. We will be using "The Bible & the Church Fathers" DVDs and reading materials through St. Paul's Center, which offers a beautiful display of artwork depicting the Church fathers, Scott Haun reading passages from the Bible, and Matthew Leonard narrating the DVDs. We will cover two chapters on Wednesday nights for 6 weeks, with a few discussion questions for the group at the end of each DVD segment. All are welcome and you can join in any Wednesday night at 6 p.m. A special thanks to Deacon Peter for letting us borrow the DVDs and to Pat & Shannon Looby for hosting the program.

PLANNED GIVING:

How to Transfer a Gift of Stock – Gifts of stock can be given to benefit our parish, the Capital Campaign, your favorite Catholic school, programs, ministries, missionary projects and the Diocese of Ogdensburg. The proceeds can be restricted according to your wishes or directed to an endowment fund held in the Foundation of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Ogdensburg. For more information, contact the diocese at 315-393-2920 or email slalone@rcdony.org.

Family Guggenheim welcomes families of all dimensions to come enjoy a special weekend in the beauty of the Adirondacks. Expect fun family workshops and activities that will have you working and laughing together. Celebrate Christ's presence in your lives through liturgy (often outside) and special prayer services. Take time for great outdoor activities like paddle boat rides, beach volleyball, and hiking. Family Guggenheim weekends are facilitated by a team which includes Family Guggenheim Directors Deacon Henry and Dayna Leader, a chaplain, and other families from the diocese. Family Guggenheim is sponsored by the Family Life Office of the Diocese of Ogdensburg. Family Guggenheim is held at the Guggenheim Retreat Center operated by the Diocese of Ogdensburg on Lower Saranac Lake. The grounds include 150 acres of land and 1,500 feet of lake shore. In this setting of unparalleled beauty, programs encourage youth and families to live and proclaim the Gospel of love and concern. Dates for this year's sessions are below and for more information, contact Steve Tartaglia at 315-393-2920 or info@rcdony.org.

A Prayer of Love to God

Dear God,
If I could speak every language in the world,
but missed the language of your love,
the music of my life would be nothing but noise.
If I could speak the future,
and knew every secret of your perfect plan
and even possessed a colossal knowledge,
but failed to love others,
my life accounting would equal zero.
If I sacrificed all my time, my resources, and my body,
I could hold bragging rights,
but it would be a total loss without love.
You are love. You are patient and kind.
You have removed my sins
as far as the east is from the west.
God, your love never gives up on me and endures through every circumstance.
You love me with an everlasting love.
I can't wrap my head around your enormous love,
but I trust you in it.
Thank you for being the greatest of everything.
Thank you for being love.
Amen.
Based on 1 Corinthians 13
