

You are Loved, You are Made For Greatness Retreat Directions

We have tried to build in flexibility for you. Some of you will bring your students together following all safety protocols. Some of you might ask your students to view the video from home. Regardless, to take full advantage of the retreat, there will need to be facilitators for the handouts and discussions involved.

You can decide how best to do the activities and discussion for your setting.

We strongly encourage you to view the entire retreat ahead of time. That way you will get a good feel for the necessary pauses in the videos.

The retreat is divided into three main parts: 1, 2, 3

Part 1: Tom Semeraro's. He includes an opening prayer and video presentation. There is an ice breaker if you wish to use it (you will need a tennis ball or soft ball)

Part 2: Anita Soltero's prayer experience.

Part 3: Cathy Russell's. Divided into five short sections with pauses for activities and video clips.

Before the retreat, everyone needs a pen/pencil and:

1. For the prayer experience, copy GOSPEL STORIES OF JESUS for each student
2. For Part 3, print out the complete script to help with pausing the video

Print for the facilitator only the Video Clip discussion sheet
